Passport Information - When and Where?
We have many inquiries regarding the Passport, Chinese Visa, & Tibet Permit. Therefore, we want to make it clear that it is our responsibility and you do not need to worry about. Here is the workflow of how we handle:

Step 1. For a Group Tour, we will apply for Tibet Permit for which we will use your passport copies that you have sent us. Please note that Tibet Authority does not gives us fixed date to approve the Permit. However, usually it takes 8 days and not more than 15 days.
Step 2. As soon as we get the Tibet Travel Permit approved, we will let you know.

For Indian Passport Holder: We will ask you to send your original passport to our Delhi agent with their contact details. Our Delhi agent collects all group's passport and need to apply at once since it is a Group Paper Visa. To get the Group Paper Visa, it usually takes 3 days.

For Non-Indian Passport Holder: We will apply for Chinese Visa when you arrive in Kathmandu, Nepal.

Step 3. For Indian Passport Holder Only: Once the Visa is approved, we will send you the Passport back to you by Courier.

IMPORTANT NOTE: Sometimes we may NOT have enough time since you may have to Fly to Kathmandu or you might plan to fly early. In such case, we will give you passport in Kathmandu, Nepal upon landing. Indian National does not need Passport to come to Kathmandu since you do not need Nepalese Visa. You just need to carry Voter ID Card or any Indian Government issued Identity card. For Foreigners, they can get their Nepali Visa upon arrival at Kathmandu Airport.

Tibet Travel Bureau (TTB) & CISPC
We are an authorized agent of China, India Pilgrimage Service Center (CIPSC)

- CIPSC (China Indian Pilgrims’ Service Center) has a monopoly over the rights to handle travel arrangements & fix rates for the Indian pilgrims in Tibet side.
- CIPSC has recently increased rate because of the international petroleum price rises suddenly, US dollar largely depreciation, the cost of domestic labor’s goes up, and commodity prices are rising
- All arrangements within Tibet are solely at the discretion of the China Tibet Tourism Bureau (TTB) & for Indian nationals, China India Pilgrim Service Center (CIPSC), both are government organizations, and we have no control over the quality of vehicles or facilities.
TTB can deny permit or even stop giving permits from time to time. We have seen this in the past.

- The regular Overland and Helicopter is actually only outer Parikrama which is easy to complete. However, for Inner Parikrama, it takes longer and it is quite challenging. Please make sure you are healthy enough to do the Inner Parikrama. We do not recommend it for anyone above 60 years old unless they are solid health conditions. Please contact us for detail itinerary and departure date for Inner Parikrama.

How much do I have to walk during Parikrama? What about Horse?
- If you cannot or do not want to go for Kailash Parikrama by foot then you can hire a horse and horseman for 3 days by paying extra (around INR 15,000 per person which you have to pay to directly to Chinese Guide. We can not take the Horse Payment as we can not guarantee). This rate may vary during travel time, hence not a fixed rate. Also availability of horse is not guaranteed.
● Even you do hire a horse, you have to walk at least 2-3 hours

Can I choose not to complete Parikrama?

Full Moon Departure

What’s special about Full-Moon departure?

There are several reasons why yatris choose Full-Moon:

● Festivals in Tibet happens during Full Moon (especially Saga Dawa Full Moon Festival: the holiest day in Tibetan Buddhism)
● Full-Moon in Mansarovar: Many Yatris prefer doing puja during the Full Moon (Purnima)
● Many want to see beautiful view of full moon over Mount Kailash
● Prefer doing Kora during Full-moon

Highest Altitude during Kailash Mansarovar Yatra
Our journey will take us from 1300m to 5700meters. The lowest point will be Kathmandu, our starting and ending point at 1300m, and the highest point will be Dolma La Pass, on the second day of our Parikrama around Mt. Kailash, at approximately 5700m height. After our entry into Tibet we will be at 3800m for two days for acclimatization, then climb to 4400m, then 4600 around Lake Manasarovar. On second day of the Parikrama around Kailash we will be at almost 5000m. Around 10 days of our time in Tibet will be at an altitude above 4000m.

Drinking Water
Yes, during the entire Yatra we will provide you free supply of seal packed Mineral Water Bottle each day.

What kind of food?
We will have Pure Vegetarian food during the entire Yatra and also in Nepal.

Is Internet connection available in Tibet?
Yes! At limited places. Like in Nyalam and Saga it is possible to have internet connection.

Can I book a pony for one day Parikrama only?
No. The rule of the Pony owner and Porter Union there is clear that Pony and/or Porter can be hired for full three days and not partial trip. Also the money has to be paid in advance and no refund is possible if you return back in two days' time instead of doing the full three days Parikrama. However, sometimes it is possible to get a pony/porter for just one day during Parikrama; the price will be exorbitant though.

Temperature / Weather
The temperature variation will be between -5 to 25 degrees Celsius. At night it gets chilly cold. During the day, if the Sun is out, it gets around 20 to 25 degrees. During driving days it gets very stuffy inside the vehicle as the windows have to be kept closed due to dust. However outside it may be very cold and windy. So while you are inside vehicle during driving days keep your down jacket handy when you step out of the car. Inside the vehicle you may need to take off your warm clothes.

Dip in the Holy Mansarovar lake
Yes, of course! However, it is advisable to take the cold bath in the lake after the Parikrama is over and we are returning back to Kathmandu.

Collect water from the holy lake
If anybody wishes to collect the water himself/herself, then on our return trip after parikrama when we stop at the holy lake you can do so.

Also each member in the group will be given email address of the travel agent where your family members can convey urgent message. The message will be conveyed to me or the main guide by phone. We will also carry a mobile with China SIM card in Tibet. This number you can convey to your family members and they can call you on that number in emergency.

Puja and havan, fire ceremony

Since the holy Kailash is the abode of Lord Shiva, at the North Face of Kailash you can do puja waiving light using the Shiva Shadakshara Mantra, that is the expanded form giving the full meaning and beauty of the six syllable Mantra Om Na-Mah Shi-Va-Ya. We recommend the group members to bring some incense, havan samagri, wood sticks, bilva patra, camphor, gopi chandan, dry fruits (nuts) for prasad.

Souvenirs from Tibet

Normally during our trip we will meet lot of ladies selling necklace, yak bone items, crystal mala, precious stone items, apart from Buddhist worship items.
